

THE KENTUCKY TRIBUNE.

JNO. F. ZIMMERMAN & SON,

$2.00 PER ANNUM.

VOL. X--NO. 9.

A Weekly Whig Chronicle of the Times, the People, and the Country.

"WE SHALL ALWAYS BE VICTORIOUS WHEN WE ALL PULL TOGETHER!"

DANVILLE, KY., FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 15, 1852.

PUBLISHERS.

IN ADVANCE.

WHOLE NO. 479.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

IS PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING, AT THE OFFICE ON THIRD STREET, NORTH OF MAIN,
DANVILLE, KY.

JNO. F. ZIMMERMAN & SON,
EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

Per annum, in advance, : : : $2 00
Within six months, : : : $1 50
At the end of the year, : : : $3 00

TO CLUBS.
Three copies for $5.00, only $1.66 each.
Five " " 8.00, " 1.60 " "
Ten " " 15.00, " 1.50 " "
Twenty " " 25.00, " 1.25 " "
Fifty " " 50.00, " 1.00 " "

IF any persons procuring the FIVE subscribers, and remitting as $10, will receive a copy one year gratis.
IF we will give one copy of the Tribune, and one copy of either Graham's, Godsey's, or Sartain's Magazine, one year, for $4.
IF no paper discontinued until all arrears are paid, except at the option of the publishers.

ADVERTISING.

For each square of 12 lines or less, first insertion, $1.00
Each additional insertion, 25 cts.
For 12 lines, or less, for 3 months, 4.00
For 12 lines, or less, for 6 months, 7.50
For 12 lines, or less, for 12 months, 10.00
One column for 12 months, 35.00
Half a column for 12 months, or a column for 6 months, 25.00
Quarter of a column for 12 months or a column for 3 months, 25.00
Advertisements of a personal character charged double.
Announcing a candidate for any office, $1.00
Continuing same until the election, 1.00
Announcing facts to be paid in advance.

JOB WORK.

Plain and Fancy Book and Job Printing, of every description, such as:
BOOKS, FARMERS', CONCERT BILLS,
PAMPHLETS, FOLDERS,
CIRCULARS, SALE BILLS,
CARDS--ALL SIZES, HOUSE BILLS,
BALL TICKETS, HAND BILLS,
ELECTION TICKETS, BLANKS, ETC., ETC.
Executed with neatness and dispatch!
Tribune Office. Give us a trial.

HON. WM. T. WARD

Will address the people on national politics, at Jamestown, Russell co. Friday, Oct. 6
Monticello, Wayne co. Monday, Oct. 11
Somerset, Wednesday, Oct. 13
Waynesburg, Lincoln co. Thursday, Oct. 14
Stanford, Friday, Oct. 15
Danville, Saturday, Oct. 16
Liberty, Casey co. Monday, Oct. 18
Campbellsville, Taylor co. Wednesday, Oct. 20
Greensburg, Green co. Friday, Oct. 22

Public Speaking.

IF we will address the people at the following places and times, viz:
Monticello, Monday, October 18th.
Jamestown, Monday, October 25th.
JAMES S. CHURMAN,
THOS. E. BRAMLETTE,
Electors 4th Congressional District.

Grand Whig Mass Meeting.

RALLY, WHIGS, RALLY!

The Whigs of Boyle and the adjoining counties, will hold a grand BASKET MEETING, at CALDWELL'S MEETING-HOUSE, in Boyle county, on Monday, October 25th, 1852.

Pos. C. E. MOREHEAD,
" J. B. THOMPSON,
" R. F. LETCHER,
" J. F. BELL,
" J. L. BELM,
" J. SPEED SMITH,
" T. F. MARSHALL.

And a host of other good Whigs, will be in attendance, and will address the people. Come one! Come all!

Come from the hills where your cattle are grazing,
Come from the glen of the back and the doe,
Come from the woods where the Scott fire is blazing,
Come from the plains and the valleys below;
Come from the peaks where the eagles are screaming,
Come from the forests where wild flowers bloom,
Come from the couage where young Hope is dreaming,
Come, and dispel from our country its gloom.
Come upon horseback, but come without tumbling!
Come in your carriages, wagons and carts,
Come where the thunder of freemen is rumbling,
Come and replenish the hope of your hearts.
Come in good spirits, and come without fainting!
Come with your neighbors, your friends and what not--
Come, for the truth will be quite animating.
Come, and hear orators talk about Scott.

There will be room enough for all, and plenty of provisions for thousands!

The people of Kentucky, Whigs and Democrats, are invited to attend. The Ladies are especially requested to come and cheer us onward in the glorious work of elevating the gallant Chieftain to the Presidency.

HEARER FOR SCOTT AND GRAHAM!!!

POET'S CORNER.

"KATY DARLING."

Sung by the Swiss Bell Ringers.

Oh, they tell me thou art dead, Katy Darling;
That thy soul I may never behold.
Did they tell thee I was false, Katy Darling,
Or my love for thee had grown cold?
Oh, they know not the loving
Of the hearts of Erin's sons.
When a love like to mine, Katy Darling,
Is the goal to the race that he runs.
Oh, listen, sweet Katy!
For the wild flowers are singing in each tree;
And the love-birds are singing in each tree;
With their love for thee, Katy Darling!
Behold, love, I'm waiting for thee!

I'm kneeling by thy grave, Katy Darling;
This world is all a blank world to me.
Oh, could'st thou hear my wailing, Katy Darling,
Or think how I'm waiting for thee--
Oh, methinks the stars are weeping,
For thy soul and lament light,
And thy heart would be melting, Katy Darling,
Could'st thou see thy lone Dermot this night.
Oh, listen, sweet Katy!
For the wild flowers are singing in each tree;
And the love-birds are singing in each tree;
With their love for thee, Katy Darling!
Behold, love, I'm waiting for thee!

MISCELLANEOUS.

[From the National Intelligencer.]
Letter from Major Jack Downing.

DANVILLE, STATE OF MAINE,
Saturday, Sept. 18, 1852.

Mr. GALE & SEATON: My dear old friends, I wish I had better news to write to you. I'm pestered almost to death by the news of the election. And, after all, I don't know why I should feel so much afraid of it, especially on my own account, for I don't suppose he's a very bad man. But I feel bad for Uncle Joshua. His whole heart is bound up in the post office, and if he should lose it, I'm afraid it would be the death of him. He's had it now more than twenty years, and he's more fond of it because it was given to him by dear old General Jackson. He loves it more like one of his own family, and I think it would be about the hardest one of the family for him to part with, unless his Aunt Keziah. If he should lose any one of 'em--that is, Aunt Keziah or the Post office--I know it would break his heart. And that's what makes me feel so bad about the turn things have taken down this way in favor of General Scott. If any way could be contrived to keep Uncle Joshua in the post office, I wouldn't care a snap if General Scott did come in. And I guess there's a good deal of the same sort of feeling amongst a good many of the democracy. I'll just give you a sample of it.

There's Cousin Sargent Joel, he can't live without hurrahing for somebody two or three times a day. He got into a habit of it in old Hickory's time, and he couldn't never leave it off since. Two or three weeks ago Uncle Joshua and I was in the barn, planning a little about getting out the voters to the election, when all of once we heard somebody back of the barn holler with all his might, "Hurrah for General Scott!" We both started and run round the corner of the barn as fast as we could, and who should we see there but Cousin Sargent Joel standing on a stump, swinging his hat all alone and hollering at the very top of his voice, "Hurrah for General Scott!" Uncle Joshua looked as cross as thunder, and Cousin Joel colored a little as soon as he saw us, but he swung his hat again, and sung out once more, "Hurrah for General Scott, and I don't care who hears it!"

"What's that you say?" said Uncle Joshua.
"I say, hurrah for General Scott, and I don't care who hears it," says Cousin Joel, putting on his hat and jumping off the stump.
"Well, this is a pretty piece of business," said Uncle Joshua, "setting such examples as this to the neighbors. There's many a word spoken in jest that's turned into earnest before it's done with; and you ought to be careful how you set such hurrahs again. If you once get 'em started, there's no knowing what'll be the end of 'em!"

"I don't much care what'll be the end of 'em," said Cousin Joel.
"Why, Joel, what do you mean?" said Uncle Joshua; "if you are going to turn Whig say so, and let us put you out of the synagogue at once, and be done with it. I want a plain right up and down answer, are you going for General Pierce or not?"

"I spose I shall," said Cousin Joel.
"Then, why in the name of common sense don't you hurrah for him?" said Uncle Joshua, "and try and get up some enthusiasm. You ought to be ashamed to throw your hurrahs away on 'tother side!"

"Now, Uncle Joshua, I'll tell you what 'tis," said Sargent Joel, straightening himself up just as he used to at the head of the company in Nullification times, says he, "I'll tell you what 'tis, General Pierce, I'm willing to vote for General Pierce to-day, but you keep the post office, and I mean to; but you--" no such hurrah for him, for I can't stand it.

tom-follery as that. I've tried it, and it won't go no how. It makes me feel so much like digging small potatoes and fowling in a hill. But when I get right hungry for a hurrah, I give it to General Scott, and I find there's refreshment and nourishment in that something like real meat; it makes me feel as it used to when we give the loudest hurrahs for General Jackson!"

Uncle Joshua turned away, looking rather down in the mouth, and saying, "he didn't know what the world was coming to!"

As near as I can find out, there's a great many Democrats in this State, and other places too, that's in the same fix as Cousin Sargent Joel Downing; they've tried to hurrah for General Pierce, and can't. Over to a raisin of Squire Jones's barn 'tother day, after they all got thro', Squire Jones, who is a great Democrat, called out, 'now let us give three cheers for General Pierce.' As quick as a look they all swung their hats, and about three quarters of 'em sung out as loud as they could hurrah, 'hurrah for General Scott.' At that Squire Jones flew in a rage, and told 'em they was traitors to the party, and no true Democrat would hurrah for anybody but General Pierce. That touched the dander of the rest of 'em, and about twenty swung their hats and cried out loudly, 'hurrah for General Scott,' and asked Squire Jones if he liked that any better.

Those things have kept Uncle Joshua very uneasy along back, and before our State election, which came along last Monday, he got nervous; and he ain't no better yet. We've been in quite a state of commotion all the week, trying to find out how the election's gone, but it's a hard sum to work out. I went over this morning to hear Uncle Joshua figure up. He was sitting to the table with his spectacles on, and the papers spread all around him, and a pen in his hand, and a dark scout on his brow. He was thinking so hard he didn't seem to know when I came in. Says Aunt Keziah, says she, "I'm dreadful glad you've come in, Major; your Uncle will make himself sick working over them figures."

Says I, "Well, Uncle Joshua, how are we coming out?"

"I'm afraid we are coming out at the little end of the horn, Major," said Uncle Joshua, and he looked up over his spectacles so pale and melancholy it made me feel bad. Says he, "I don't like the looks of it a bit; the State is on the back track again towards Whiggery, just as 'twas when Harrison came in."

"Oh, I guess not," says I, for I wanted to cheer him up as much as I could. "The liquor law has played the mischief with this election all round, and got things badly mixed up; but if we sift 'em out carefully we shall find the Democrats as strong as ever." Uncle Joshua shook his head. Says I, "Let us see the figures. Here's the returns from three hundred towns, all the State except some of the outskirts. Mr. Hubbard and Mr. Chandler, the two Democratic candidates for governor, has together more than fifty-eight thousand votes, and Mr. Crosby, the Whig candidate, has a little more than twenty-seven thousand. The Democratic vote is more than double the Whig vote. This don't look as though the State was going back to Whiggery."

"That don't amount to nothin' at all," said Uncle Joshua; "a good many thousand of temperance Whigs voted for Hubbard, and a good many run Whigs voted for Chandler; and when the Legislature comes to meet, Crosby will stand just as good a chance to be chosen Governor as any one of 'em, and better too, if the State goes over the dam the 21 of November, and you may depend it's drifting that way, or else I've forgot how to cipher. Just look at the Legislature. Last year in the Senate there was about five Democrats to one Whig, and now the Whigs have elected fourteen Senators, and the Democrats only seven, leaving nine or ten no choice or doubtful. And then in the House it ain't much better. Last year we had a clear majority of more than thirty, and now it don't look as though we should have more than ten majority. And if the State goes for Scott, I believe the Legislature will go that way too, Governor and all."

"But may be, Uncle Joshua," says I, "the Whigs haven't gained so much as you think for, after all. It looks bad in the Legislature, I see, but it may be all owing to the run business, as you say about the Governor."

"No, no, it isn't that," said Uncle Joshua, with a heavy sigh; "you may depend upon it the State has got a Whig drift. The Congressmen tells the story, and there the run business has nothing to do with it. In the last Congress we had five Democratic Representatives, and the Whigs two. Well, now how is it? In the next Congress this State has six Representatives, and the Democrats have made out to elect three and the Whigs three. It's just an even balance, and a few more of them foolish hurrahs for General Scott will tip the State again us."

"Well, we must stir around," says I, "and try to stop this hurrah business, and maybe we can save the State yet. If I catch Sargent Joel at it again I'll cashier him. If Democrats can't hurrah for Pierce, they musn't be allowed to hurrah for nobody. But, after all, Uncle, souse we should lose this State, the nation is safe for the Democracy. You must remember we have a large majority of the States, and half two-thirds of the members of the last Congress."

"Well, said he, 'that don't prove whether we shall have two-thirds or one-third in the next Congress. If the States go on as they have begun, it will be pretty likely to be one-third. There's only three States that has elected their Representatives to the next Congress yet, and that is Maine, and Missouri, and Iowa."

and only just look at 'em. Three years ago they stood 12 Democrats and 2 Whigs, and now they stand 7 Democrats and 6 Whigs. How long will it take at that rate to turn our two-thirds into one? I'm afraid there's a Whig drift going over the country that'll swamp us. Sailors tell about the big tenth wave that rolls up and carries everything before it, and I'm thinking it seems to be a good deal so in politics. There was a big tenth wave in 1840, and you remember what work it made. It looks a good deal as if there is another big tenth wave rolling up now, to swamp the Democracy and upset Congress. We've got to have trying times, Major. I don't know what'll become of the country if the Whigs get the upper hand." He said this with such a mournful expression, that I see the tears came into Aunt Keziah's eyes. She's a good Christian woman; and she laid her hand on his shoulder, and says she, "Oh, Mr. Downing, pray don't be so worried, but trust in Providence!"

And now, Mr. Gales & Seaton, if you can say anything to encourage us, or to relieve Uncle Joshua's anxious mind, you would do a great kindness to your old friend.

MAJOR JACK DOWNING.

Jonathan Spike's Speech on the Protection of Hen Roosts.

MISTER PRESIDENT: I've set here and listened to Tom Hone's pusillanimous attempts to get you to vote again this bill for the protection of hen roosts till he's completely rizz up the ridiculous sensibilities of my intellectual capacities! But, Mr. President, what care I? His high-toned argyvin' hangs to the end of my shirt-tails like a bunch of backboks to a blacksmith's! O hearken to him no longer, most high an' mighty boss, for he's gone--hushed up, jumped into the depth of unlimited space, or in the tenuous language of Shakespeare, when 'er tickin' the lugins--"Div-ketash!"--tho the briny ocean!"

The mud eels an' cat fish
On his body will ride,
An' lobsters an' flat fish
Select him for diet.

Mister President--I'm a blazin' with the smoke of vengeance agin Tom Hone, and to show you that sumbith' must be done for the protection of hen roosts, I shall a tale unfold whose liest words will harrow your soul up--freeze yer blood; Make yer two eyes like stars start outer their speers.

An' yer combined locks to stan' on end, Like quills on the dreadnail porcupine." The liquor law has played the mischief with this election all round, and got things badly mixed up; but if we sift 'em out carefully we shall find the Democrats as strong as ever." Uncle Joshua shook his head. Says I, "Let us see the figures. Here's the returns from three hundred towns, all the State except some of the outskirts. Mr. Hubbard and Mr. Chandler, the two Democratic candidates for governor, has together more than fifty-eight thousand votes, and Mr. Crosby, the Whig candidate, has a little more than twenty-seven thousand. The Democratic vote is more than double the Whig vote. This don't look as though the State was going back to Whiggery."

"That don't amount to nothin' at all," said Uncle Joshua; "a good many thousand of temperance Whigs voted for Hubbard, and a good many run Whigs voted for Chandler; and when the Legislature comes to meet, Crosby will stand just as good a chance to be chosen Governor as any one of 'em, and better too, if the State goes over the dam the 21 of November, and you may depend it's drifting that way, or else I've forgot how to cipher. Just look at the Legislature. Last year in the Senate there was about five Democrats to one Whig, and now the Whigs have elected fourteen Senators, and the Democrats only seven, leaving nine or ten no choice or doubtful. And then in the House it ain't much better. Last year we had a clear majority of more than thirty, and now it don't look as though we should have more than ten majority. And if the State goes for Scott, I believe the Legislature will go that way too, Governor and all."

"But may be, Uncle Joshua," says I, "the Whigs haven't gained so much as you think for, after all. It looks bad in the Legislature, I see, but it may be all owing to the run business, as you say about the Governor."

"No, no, it isn't that," said Uncle Joshua, with a heavy sigh; "you may depend upon it the State has got a Whig drift. The Congressmen tells the story, and there the run business has nothing to do with it. In the last Congress we had five Democratic Representatives, and the Whigs two. Well, now how is it? In the next Congress this State has six Representatives, and the Democrats have made out to elect three and the Whigs three. It's just an even balance, and a few more of them foolish hurrahs for General Scott will tip the State again us."

"Well, we must stir around," says I, "and try to stop this hurrah business, and maybe we can save the State yet. If I catch Sargent Joel at it again I'll cashier him. If Democrats can't hurrah for Pierce, they musn't be allowed to hurrah for nobody. But, after all, Uncle, souse we should lose this State, the nation is safe for the Democracy. You must remember we have a large majority of the States, and half two-thirds of the members of the last Congress."

"Well, said he, 'that don't prove whether we shall have two-thirds or one-third in the next Congress. If the States go on as they have begun, it will be pretty likely to be one-third. There's only three States that has elected their Representatives to the next Congress yet, and that is Maine, and Missouri, and Iowa."

"Miser! Miser!--There is no peace! Peace! Peace!--I'm dun. Give us a chaw tobaccoer.--Priedeer.

"A disappointed author indulging in a vein of abuse against a successful rival, exclaimed:--'He is, without exception, the most sufficient, ignorant, shallow creature that ever made any pretension to literature.'--'Gently, my dear Sir, and you couldn't find another such a barterous savage."

THE RETORT.--"I have never lived in any place," said Starch, "where there was not some mean men."

"You never lived in a place where there was not one mean man," said Spikes.

"A Western editor, in speaking of a vocalist, says the more an audience admires say filing, the sooner he will become a favorite with them."

If you wish to get good bargains buy of people who advertise. The increased amount of custom that a judicious system of advertising brings to a store, enables the proprietor to sell at a smaller profit than those can afford who have an accidental customer now and then.

Machinery has reached a great state of perfection. We saw some great peas put into the hopper of a coffee mill, the other day, and in less than two minutes it was occupying a place in a grocery window, labelled 'Old Government Java.'

How to Detect Counterfeits.

1. Examine the appearance of the bill; the genuine have a general dark, neat appearance.
2. Examine the vignette, or picture in the middle of the top; see if the sky or background looks clear and transparent, or soft and even, and not scratchy.
3. Examine well the face; see if the expressions are distinct and easy, natural and life like. Particularly the eyes.
4. See if the drapery or dress fits well, looks natural and easy, shows the folds distinctly.
5. Examine the medallion, ruling and heads, and circular ornaments around the figures, &c. See if they are regular, smooth and uniform, not scratchy.
This work in the genuine looks as if raised on the paper, and cannot be perfectly imitated.

6. Examine the principal line of letters, or name of the bank. See if they are all upright, perfectly true and even; or if sloping, of a uniform slope.
7. Carefully examine the shade or part of ruling on the face or outside of the letters, &c.; see if it is clear, and looks as if covered with a brush. The fine and the parallel lines in the genuine are of equal size, smooth and even; counterfeits look as if done with a pen.
8. Observe the round handwriting engraved on the bill, which would be black, equal in size and distance, of a uniform slope and smooth. This in a genuine note is invariably well done, and looks stiff, as if done with a pen.
9. The imprint, or engraver's name, which is always near the border or end of the note, and is always alike; letters small, upright, and engraved very perfectly. Counterfeits seldom do it well.

NOTE--It was remarked by Stephen Burroughs, before he died, that two things could not be perfectly counterfeited; one was the dye work, or portrait medallion heads, vignette, &c., and the other the shading, or ruling above the letters--Bank Note Reporter.

Our Country.

In 1792, the corner-stone of our present Capitol at Washington, was laid. That time Gen. Washington, in whose honor the seat of government was named, officiated. Fifty years afterwards, viz: on the 4th of July, 1841, the corner-stone of an extension of the building was laid; and the Secretary made an address, in the course of which he presented a sketch of the comparative conditions of our country at the two periods.

Then we had fifteen States, now we have thirty-one.
Then "our whole population was three millions, now it is twenty three millions. Then Boston had eighteen thousand people, now it has one hundred and thirty-six thousand.
Philadelphia had forty-two thousand, now it has four hundred and nine thousand.
New York had thirty-three thousand, now it has five hundred and fifty thousand.
Then our imports were thirty-one millions, now they are one hundred and seventy-eight millions.
The area of our territory was then eight hundred thousand square miles, it is now three millions three hundred thousand square miles.
Then we had no railroads, now we have three millions five hundred thousand miles of it.
Then we had two hundred post-offices, now we have twenty-one thousand.
Our revenue from postage then was one hundred thousand dollars, now it is five millions.

These are only a few facts going to show the rapid growth of our country; and all that we and our children have to do to secure the continuance of its prosperity, is to love, fear and obey the God of our fathers; to avoid pride, contention and greediness of gain, and cherish in all our hearts a true patriotism, and a just sense of obligation to those that shall come after us.

DOCTOR GRAHAM'S HORSE.--N. P. Willis, Esq., of the Home Journal, writing from Harrodsburg, Ky., says, in a description of Dr. Graham, of the Springs: "You would be likely to draw an erroneous conclusion as to the Doctor's character, from the habits of his horse. Of all the gentlemen in the country he is probably the most prompt, expeditious and energetic man of business--yet his horse (which he lent me for a ride every day) walked me straight up to every carriage and horseman on the road, and, spite of whip and other remonstrance, came to a dead halt, and stayed there, till he had heard some conversation. It was occasionally a little embarrassing to me, for, where there were ladies in the carriage, the possible habits of the horse were not likely to occur to them; and, for a stranger to stop them in the middle of the road and have nothing to say, looked like rather a thinly covered indulgence of curiosity. But the Doctor, though he has time and politeness for everybody, as this confirmed habit of his will bay horse undeniably betrays,) is still of a most unobtrusive where-he's-wanted-ness."

KENTUCKY MEDICAL SOCIETY.--The Secretary of this association gives notice that its second annual meeting will be held at Louisville on the third Wednesday of the present month. "The physicians throughout the State are cordially invited to attend, and all wishing to become members, who may not find it convenient to leave home, are requested to send their applications, enclosing $2, (admission fees) to R. C. Sneed, Secretary, Frankfort, Kentucky."

AMERICANS IN TROUBLE.

A Paris letter of the 16th says, that about one hundred of the New York passengers by the steamer Franklin, which arrived at Havre a few days previous, left that city for Paris by the first train and found the track encumbered by a landslide caused by the late excessive rains. The interval, which they were compelled to travel at best they could, was some six miles wide, and every species of vehicle, from a diligence to a handcart, was put into requisition. One gentleman, a tall Kentuckian, did the distance in a wheelbarrow, and his sufferings from riding backwards, and letting his legs trail upon the ground, would draw tears even from a corner-stone laid by Louis Napoleon.

To enjoy to-day, stop worrying about tomorrow. Next week will be just as capable of taking care of itself as this one. And why shouldn't it? It will have seven days more experience.

Notice to Stockholders.

Office Lex. & Dan. Railroad Co.,
DANVILLE, SEPT. 17, 1852.

ORDERED, That a call be made on the Stockholders for 10 per cent. of the subscription, to be paid by the 1st of October next, and for that sum to be paid quarterly until the whole subscription is paid--payable to C. Rodes, Treasurer, at Danville, or P. E. Yenser, Collector, at Lexington.
If by order of the board, interest will be required on all calls not paid within 10 days after they become due.

JOHN BARKLEY, Pres.

Sept 17, 1852
Lexington Observer and Statesman copy if.

Lex. and Dan. Railroad Office.

Stockholders are requested to be punctual in payment of the calls, as the business of the Company requires its funds to meet engagements with the contractors. Payments will be received at this office. Calls not paid within ten days after the same are due, can be paid to BOYLE & ANDERSON, who are authorized to receive and collect the same.
C. RODES, Treasurer.
Lex. & Dan. R. R. Co.

Sept 16, 1852 if

12 POUNDS No. 1 Sugar for $1.00.

At W. B. Morrow & Co's.
RIO COFFEE, 1.00.
MAMMOTH GROCERY.

Sept 10, '52

NEW STOCK!

I WISH to call the attention of the public to a superior stock of
BOOTS AND SHOES.
Which I am now opening at my old stand, and which for neatness and durability, cannot be surpassed, if equalled, in this place. Please call before purchasing, as I am confident that I can satisfy you in both price and quality. I will sell
Cheaper than the Cheapest
For Cash in hand, or as they are known to pay punctually once or twice a year. It is hoped no others will apply for credit, as my price have not been arranged to suit their cases.
I still manufacture Boots and Shoes in the best manner.
F. P. WHITCHER.
Sept 10, '52 if

A HATS--HATS. A

I AM now in receipt of my Fall supply of HATS, which for neatness and durability will compare favorably with any in this market. Prices very low for Cash, or to prompt paying customers.
F. P. WHITCHER.
Sept 10, '52 if

4000 lbs. New Flour

Just received. Also, a few Bushels Grain Flour. 20 Bushels Fresh Corn Meal for sale by
T. W. & J. GORE.
Sept 20, '52 if

NEW JEWELRY.

The undersigned have just received an entirely new assortment of
JEWELRY,
Watches and Silver Ware;
Which were selected with care by one of the firm, who has just returned from the Eastern cities. Their stock is large and embraces everything usually kept in Jewelry Stores, and was purchased from the most responsible and largest manufacturers in the United States. They are selling at small profits.

YEISER & SCOTT,
Successors to R. Frazer,
Sept 24, '52 if
Lexington, Ky.

FURNITURE

WARE-HOUSE!
Short Street, between the Banks,
LEXINGTON, KY.

PATTERSON & WOODRUFF

HAVE now on hand, of their own manufacture, a very large and complete assortment of every article pertaining to their line of business, FOR FALL TRADE, which they warrant equal to any, and which they will sell at REDUCED PRICES!
Lexington, Sept 10, '52 if

T. T.

A Superior article of Green and Black Tea just received and for sale, aug 27
CHAS. COGGSHALL.

Bacon Hams and Lard.

A CHOICE lot of Bacon Hams and Lard for sale,
D. A. RUSSELL,
Corner Main and 4th streets

CARPETS.

WE are now receiving our Fall Supply of CARPETS, consisting of Rich Velvet and Brussels Tapestry, Extra and Imperial 3 Ply Carpets, superfine and Fine Ingrains, Twilled and Plain Velvets, Rugs and Door Mats in great variety of colors, and Bragette of all widths.

Oil Cloths

Of all widths, from 2 feet to 4-4, and cut to fit Rooms and Passages.

PIANOS!

6th, 6th and 7th Octave Rosewood Pianos, of best makers, and of superior tone and finish.

WALL PAPER

Of all qualities and patterns, from the commonest to the Gilt and Velvet descriptions, with rich Borders to suit.

Curtain Materials

Rich Broadcloth, Satin De-Laine, Gorman De-Laine

THE TRIBUNE.

For the Kentucky. The Meeting of the Friends of the
SOUTH-WESTERN RAILROAD,
At the Tennessee Line.

At a large and respectable meeting of the friends of the South-Western Railroad, at the State line, on the 21st of Oct. 1852. CLAYTON MILLER, Esq., of Kentucky, was called to the chair—Judge A. CULLEN, of Tennessee, and Col. J. B. BARNES, of Kentucky, were chosen Vice Presidents of the meeting, and Wm. H. Goodbar, of Tenn., and T. T. Alexander, of Ky., were appointed Secretaries.

Tim Graves, Esq., of Kentucky, and Judge A. Cullen, of Tenn., were requested to give to the meeting the State of progress of that portion of the South-Western Railroad lying in the respective States of Tennessee and Kentucky.

Whereupon, the gentlemen selected gave a lucid and highly encouraging statement of the prospects of the enterprise, both in Kentucky and Tennessee, and gave assurances that "the work goes bravely on."

On motion, the following gentlemen were appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting—Messrs. Doherty and Wm. Basson, of Tennessee, and Col. M. King, J. Caldwell, Esq., and Dr. S. B. Field, of Kentucky, who after having retired for a short time, presented to the meeting the following:

The South Western Railroad from Danville, Kentucky, to McMinnville, Tennessee, as a rapid, cheap and constant mode of transportation; trade and travel, will augment the value of exported products, and diminish the cost of imported necessities; comforts and luxuries, and will extend the social and business relations of the North and South. Therefore,

Resolved, That we will untiringly and individually exert our energy and put forth all our ability to secure the early and successful completion of this enterprise.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Danville Tribune and State Times, and all other papers friendly to the enterprise.

Mr. J. Caldwell then addressed the meeting in a forcible and happy manner, urging the necessity of united and prompt action.

Mr. Wm. M. Basson being called for, addressed the meeting at some length, giving an account of the enterprise in Tennessee and urging upon Kentuckians to leave nothing undone to secure the speedy completion of the road.

After which, the meeting adjourned sine die.

CLAYTON MILLER, Pres't.
Wm. H. Goodbar,
T. T. ALEXANDER,
Secretaries.

CUBA.
Our relations with Cuba bear a threat.

Of late items of news we notice the following:

The Crescent City will not be allowed to enter the harbor of Havana, if William Smith, the pursuer, is aboard.

The authorities at Havana seized the letter bag of the bark Cornelia, when under way for New York, and opened the letters, and several who were compromised by their contents had been arrested, and some persons who were secreted aboard attempting to leave without a passport were made prisoners and taken ashore.

The authorities at Havana seem determined to push matters to extremes.

Cuba is situated in the West Indies, New York, Oct. 6.

The Crescent City is coming up. She arrived at Havana last Sunday, but was forbidden all communication with the shore, and ordered out forthwith. Capt. Porter made a formal protest, but the resistance was unavailing, and the steamer had to put to and in a violent gale. She brings all the Havana passengers and the mails. The pretext for the outrage was that Porter Smith was aboard.

Work! Work! Work!—"There is no excellence without labor," is a true and true saying. So in the political field—We cannot succeed except by working. Democrats, work! work!

Oh yes, Democrats, work! work! work! Keep working all the time. Work all day, and just as you are going to bed, drink half a gallon of fomenting beer so that you may work even in your sleep.—Low Jour.

VERY RICH.—A correspondent at Burkesville, Kentucky, says:

Mr. Editor:—I think the following too good to be lost. A staunch Democrat in this neighborhood, during the Mexican war, was called upon to pray at a regular church meeting, upon which he perpetrated the usual form upon such occasions, with this addition: "Oh Lord, be with our army in Mexico, whether it be right or whether it be wrong; bless it. We of the Democratic party are charged with making a war for conquest; but we believe it to be a war of defense. But, oh, Lord, we would not enter into an argument of the subject before you, but for further particulars, would refer you to the President's Message."

This has brought to my mind, by hearing the same brother, before an Association, a few days since make the following speech:

"I would urge upon you, brethren, the taking of the Western Recorder," turning to delegation from a church in Tennessee—"and you, brethren, ought to take it, too, as the interests of the Church in Kentucky and Tennessee are very closely allied, and will become much more so upon the completion of the Danville and McMinnville railroad, which I pray God will not be long as I have about fifteen thousand dollars involved in that enterprise."—Wes Rec.

The editor of the Southern Democrat offers us a bet upon Pierce's election. We are his betters but shan't bet.

Low Jour.

Letter from 'old Stone-hammer.'

We are permitted to publish the following excellent letter from Ex-Governor METCALFE, in reply to an invitation to be present at the Whig Mass Meeting to be held in this county on the 25th. It will be seen that the noble old man will honor us with his presence on that occasion. Every Whig in the county, and as many as the friends of the adjoining counties, should be present to greet him, for he has always been one of the "wheel-horses" of the great Whig team.

FOREST RETREAT, Ky., Oct. 10, '52.
W. C. ANDERSON, Esq.,

Dear Sir:—In acknowledging the receipt of your favor of the 7th inst., I have the honor to inform you that I have the pleasure of accepting that invitation, and if health and strength permit, I will certainly do myself the honor to be one of your patriotic number on that occasion. To be one of your number is the most that I can promise. Treading, as I now do, on the confines of another world—my physical powers fast waning to ultimate extinction, how do I know but what the same may justly be said of my intellectual powers?

"Know thyself," is a precept worthy of the source from which it emanated—a precept, however, which I know not how to follow, even in my best days. My Whig friends will, therefore, doubtless excuse me from any attempt to make a public speech on that occasion. For, relying upon it that nothing that I can utter will have the least influence in convincing a sturdy self-styled Democrat of his errors. On the contrary, the simple declaration that the "old fellow" is in his "dotage," will be amply sufficient to refute all his declarations and all his arguments, no matter how unanswerable they may be.

As a proof of what I say, allow me to relate an occurrence which took place at the last Convention held by the Whigs for the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor and Lt. Gov. Being called upon for a speech, I proceeded accordingly. At the outset, I gave to the Democracy full credit for all their good deeds—few and far between, "his true—and whilst I was right eloquently employed, as I thought, in this set of justice somewhat overwrought, an intelligent Democrat, sticking his head in the window, and shouting a brother Whig of distinction, said to him: "Do you hear that? There is liberty for you! The fact is, that I always liked the old fellow for his cleverness and liberality." With these remarks, my Whig friend was not a little delighted, thinking that language had an ameliorating effect on the mind of the Democrat. Somewhat later, when my Democratic friend perceived that a heavy balance would be made to appear against the Democracy, exclaimed, "What the d— has got into the old fellow now?"—he must be getting in his "dotage!"

But, dropping all anecdote, I will be up and doing to the last. When I can no longer occupy the front rank, and cry out, "Come on, boys!" I will nevertheless put upon the backs the brave and patriotic young men of my country with the never-ceasing cry—Go on, gallant youths, go on! The banner borne by the noble Scott never trails in the dust! It is the banner of your country in all its glory!

Tennessee!—gallant and patriotic Tennessee!—I trust has but few bolting Breckinsleys at this perilous crisis. Kentucky none! If the "Whigs of Kentucky have any 'wound' left, and neither, ready to leave the flock because he is not allowed, to lead, out him at once from our midst—no sooner the better—for he is not worthy to be one of us, and is barely fit to be one of the meanest in the ranks of this new-fangled Democracy.

Boyle!—indolgent, far-famed and patriotic Boyle!—no one of thy sons, I am quite sure, will, at such a crisis as this, bolt from his Whig brethren! To do so, would be to turn thy back upon the Republic, and to all the glories that await you and your posterity if that Republic is sustained in its purity.

Most respectfully, &c.,
THOMAS METCALFE.

AN INCIDENT IN MEXICO.—The following incident told by Gov. LETCHER, is too good to be lost. We copy from the Carrollton (Ky.) Mirror, an independent paper:

Having some business in the Supreme Court of Mexico, I went one morning to the Court-room. I was received as the American Minister, and was invited to take a seat upon the bench with the Court, which was composed of eight Judges.

The Chief Justice was a man of wit, and the following passed between us: C. J.—This is a very fine room.
Gov.—Very, indeed, [and truly it was.]

C. J.—Well adapted for a Court-room.
Gov.—Yes, very wisely arranged.

C. J.—Yes, and this room has some distinction.
Gov.—Ah! In what respect?

C. J.—Why, sir, this is the room in which Gen. Scott was tried.
Gov.—Gen. Scott tried in this room?

C. J.—Yes, sir, General Scott was tried in this room.
Gov.—Why, what for?

C. J.—Ah, that is what our Mexicans have never been able to find out.

Life in New York.—The New York Journal of Commerce of Saturday week, has the following paragraph:

Worse and worse.—Already this week there have been eight cases of murder, homicide, or deadly assault in this city, by the knife, the pistol or brutal violence, and three of the sufferers are already dead! A gentleman was twice fired at in Broadway, yesterday morning, at four o'clock, and the bone of his arm was badly shattered.

The Toledo Blade tells the story of a chap on their road, who, apprehending a collision of the cars, put his life preserver on, blew it up, and leaning his back against the side of the car, resigned himself to his fate!

The editor of the Southern Democrat offers us a bet upon Pierce's election. We are his betters but shan't bet.

Low Jour.

Official Vote of 1852.

The following is the official return of the vote for President and Vice President in 1852. It possesses more than ordinary interest at the present time, and will be regarded with attention as the election approaches. It will be seen that on that occasion the Northern and middle States that voted for Taylor and Fillmore were:

Massachusetts,	12
Rhode Island,	4
Connecticut,	6
Vermont,	4
New York,	36
New Jersey,	7
Pennsylvania,	26
Delaware,	3
Maryland,	8
North Carolina,	11
Georgia,	10
Kentucky,	12
Tennessee,	13
Louisiana,	6
Florida,	3
Southern,	66
Northern,	97
Total,	163

The number necessary to a choice was 143. Gen. Taylor and Mr. Fillmore, therefore, received 17 votes more than enough.

States.	Taylor.	Fillmore.	Butler.
No. of votes.
1 Maine,	1	0	0
2 N. Hampshire,	1	0	0
12 Massachusetts,	12	12	0
4 Rhode Island,	4	4	0
6 Connecticut,	6	6	0
4 Vermont,	4	4	0
36 New York,	36	36	0
26 Pennsylvania,	26	26	0
3 Delaware,	3	3	0
8 Maryland,	8	8	0
11 North Carolina,	11	11	0
9 South Carolina,	9	9	0
10 Georgia,	10	10	0
12 Kentucky,	12	12	0
13 Tennessee,	13	13	0
23 Ohio,	23	23	0
6 Louisiana,	6	6	0
3 Mississippi,	3	3	0
12 Indiana,	12	12	0
9 Illinois,	9	9	0
9 Alabama,	9	9	0
7 Missouri,	7	7	0
3 Arkansas,	3	3	0
5 Michigan,	5	5	0
4 Texas,	4	4	0
4 Iowa,	4	4	0
4 Wisconsin,	4	4	0
290	163	127	163

The Electoral Vote in 1852. In this connection we also give the electoral vote in 1852:

Maine,	5
N. Hamp.	5
Vermont,	5
Mass.,	13
R. Island,	4
Connecticut,	6
New York,	35
New Jersey,	7
Pennsylvania,	27
Delaware,	3
Maryland,	8
Virginia,	15
N. Carolina,	10
S. Carolina,	7
Georgia,	10
Florida,	3
Ohio,	23
Indiana,	13
Illinois,	13
Alabama,	9
Missouri,	9
Arkansas,	4
California,	4
Whole number of votes,	295
Necessary to elect,	143
Save States, including Del., are, 15—electoral vote, 119. Free States, 16—electoral vote, 176.

POPULAR VOTE IN 1848.

The nominations of both the great political parties of the country, for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, being before the people, the data on which to base calculations as to their chances of success, will be of particular interest. We therefore here annex the popular vote at the last Presidential election:

States.	Taylor.	Cass.	V. Buren.
Alabama,	30,482	31,363	—
Arkansas,	7,583	9,300	—
Connecticut,	30,314	27,047	5,005
Delaware,	6,422	5,010	30
Florida,	4,539	3,238	—
Georgia,	47,544	44,802	—
Illinois,	53,215	56,629	15,804
Indiana,	60,907	74,745	8,100
Iowa,	11,173	12,125	1,126
Kentucky,	67,141	49,720	—
Louisiana,	18,217	15,870	—
Maine,	35,276	40,206	12,178
Maryland,	37,702	34,523	125
Mass.,	61,070	35,221	38,058
Michigan,	23,940	30,687	10,369
Mississippi,	25,922	26,537	—
Missouri,	32,671	40,077	—
N. Hamp.,	14,781	27,763	7,560
New Jersey,	49,015	36,901	849
New York,	218,583	114,319	120,497
N. Carolina,	43,519	34,869	85
Ohio,	138,359	154,773	35,347
Penn.,	185,730	172,166	11,177
R. Island,	6,779	3,646	730
S. Carolina,	—	—	—
Tennessee,	64,705	58,419	—
Texas,	4,509	10,608	—
Vermont,	23,122	10,948	13,837
Virginia,	45,265	46,738	—
Wisconsin,	13,747	15,001	10,419
Total,	1,362,242	1,223,795	291,378
Taylor over Cass,	138,447
Cass and Van Buren over Taylor,	152,931

*Votes by the Legislature.

Gen. Pierce's biographers boast that when he was just out of college, being asked by his father how to spell "but," he promptly answered "b-u-t." Now we should like to know how the young collegian could know from the sound of the word whether the old gentleman meant "but" or "b-u-t." Evidently the young fellow wasn't aware of the difference between the two ways to spell the word. So we don't think that his education was anything very remarkable after all.

Low Jour.

Try him by their own Scales.

Who is the Favorite of the Free-soilers?—The Democratic orators, from their Congressional stumps down to their county elections, rag-tag and bob-tail, editors, from Bull and Tige to "Tray, Blanche and Sweetheart"—little dogs and all—throughout the entire South urge against Gen. Scott that he is the Free-soilers favorite—and some of the less decent—our neighbor of the Poughlough, for instance—actually accuse him of being an abolitionist. The following list shows how the leaders of the Free-soil party are divided between the two candidates for the Presidency:

For Scott.	For Pierce.
W. H. SEWARD,	M. VAN BUREN.
H. GREELY,	J. VAN BUREN.
GOV. JOHNSTON,	JNO. A. DIX.
PRESTON KING,	B. F. HALETT.
B. F. BUTLER,	DAVID WILCOX.
THOS. W. DORR,	W. J. BROWN.
H. HAMILIN,	JOHN ATWOOD.
MOSES NORRIS,	C. CLEVELAND.
N. Y. EVE POST,	PLAIN DEALER.

In the first column, says the Memphis Enquirer, are the three terrible fellows whose demagogic influence has formed the staple of every anti-Scott speech which has been made in the South since the canvass opened. They are the gorgon heads with which party politicians have hoped to frighten the Southern people from the support of the brave old man who fought their battles when half of them were too young to fight for themselves. These three constitute the mighty influence which is to control Gen. Scott—an old soldier who has, for forty years, and upwards, been controlling others!—and devastate the fifteen Southern States.

They are three! But look in the other column, if you wish to find the real "head devils" of this sinister influence. First on the list is Martin Van Buren—the betrayer of the South—the candidate of the Abolitionists and Free-soilers in 1848—the Master Magician—the embodiment of all that is cunning, trickery, unscrupulous, and selfish in politics. He don't go for Scott—He's for Pierce! The most prominent, as he is by far his ablest advocate in the North. And there's his son John—"Prince John," as they call him—a regular "chip of the block," brim-full of abolition and anti-slavery feeling, hailing the South with a cordial hatred for having thrown his revered father overboard in 1844, shrewd, active, and cunning as Lucifer himself—he, too, goes for Pierce, and is dead set against Scott. Then there's David Wilcox, the man whose hand first lighted this torch of political slavery in Congress; and Dix, and King, and a whole lot of others whose breath kindled it into a conflagration which threatened to destroy the Union—they all go for Pierce, and against Scott. Why? Because—as their brother Free-soiler, Colonel Hayne, said at the Poughlough Convention—"THEY KNOW THEIR MAN." Because they know he declares slavery, and has a most revolting feeling at the giving up of a slave? Because they know that, born and raised in the bigoted atmosphere of New Hampshire, his prejudices and sympathies are sectional and in harmony with their own hostile feelings towards the South; and that Gen. Scott, a Virginian by birth and by profession, long habit, and patriotic reflection—a citizen of the Union, has no such narrow sectional feelings.

Look at the two lists—examine and scrutinize the names and the history of the men—compare the weight of influence on one side and the other, and then say, if, weighed in their own scales, Gen. Pierce is not found wanting.

EXECUTORS' SALE.

THE undersigned, as Executors of the last will and testament of KENNETH BART, dec'd., will,

On Wednesday, October 20, 1852, At the late residence of said Bryant, in the county of Lincoln, about 1 1/2 miles west of Stanford, on the Hostonville road, proceed to sell the personal property of said decedent, consisting of

STOCK, CROP, FARMING UTENSILS, &c., As follows:

STOCK—29 head of Yearling Males, in good order; 1 Bred Jack Colt, two years old; a fine Sucking Mule Colt; 1 Jennie; 5 head of Horses; 4 Milch Cows and their calves; 1 Yoke of Oxen; 4 Horses; all the stock of Hogs; 15 or 18 head of Sheep, part of them very fine.

CROP—About 40 Acres of Corn in the shock; 100 bushels of clean Wheat; 5 stacks of Oats; and 1 of Rye; 2 stacks of Hay and 1 of Buckwheat; 30 cords of Wood.

FARMING UTENSILS, &c.—2 two-horse Wagons, just put up, and 1 six-horse Wagon, nearly new; a good set of BLACKSMITH Tools; a first-rate TACKLING LAYING, and a lot of Iron and Steel; 2 Axes; all the household and Kitchen Furniture; Farming Utensils, &c., &c.

We will sell a NEGRO WOMAN, about 30 years old, and her two Children, one a Boy about 6 years old, and the other a Girl about 4 years old. Also, Two Negro Men will be mixed out until Christmas, one of whom is a good Blacksmith. Will also be sold, CONTAINING 137 ACRES. In a good state of cultivation, with a good comfortable Dwelling-House, Kitchen and out-houses, all in complete repair. Any person desiring to purchase the Farm and add to it, can do so, of land immediately adjoining.

Terms of Sale.—The Land will be sold on credit of one, two and three years, in equal payments, without interest. The other property on a credit of nine months for all sums over $5; that sum and under, Cash in hand. Bond with security will be required of the purchaser in all cases before the property is removed. Sale to commence at 10 o'clock, A. M. Due attention will be given by

THE EXECUTORS. N. B.—All persons having claims against the estate, are requested to present them properly authenticated for settlement, and all persons indebted to said decedent are requested to pay up immediately.

Oct 1, '52

FOUND.—On the Lexington Turnpike, between the Kentucky River and King's Tug-boat, on Sunday, Sept. 26th, a POCKET BOOK, containing an amount of money which I deem it prudent not to mention. The loser can get the same, by calling on me, at the Crab Orchard Springs, describing the same and paying for this advertisement.

H. L. DAVENPORT.

Oct 1, '52

FOUND.—On the Lexington Turnpike, between the Kentucky River and King's Tug-boat, on Sunday, Sept. 26th, a POCKET BOOK, containing an amount of money which I deem it prudent not to mention. The loser can get the same, by calling on me, at the Crab Orchard Springs, describing the same and paying for this advertisement.

H. L. DAVENPORT.

Oct 1, '52

LOOK AT HOME BEFORE GOING ABOARD!

PREMIUM FURNITURE.

G. W. HEWLEY.
Furniture Buildings, Third Street.
HAS on hand, of his own manufacture a large and beautiful assortment of Furniture, of every description—all of which he will sell on good terms at the same articles can be bought in the West.

Having made the necessary arrangements, I will keep on hand a constant supply of Fisk's Metallic Burial Cases.

Together with Silver and Plated Mounting Cases, I will also still continue to manufacture Wooden Caskets to order, and having provided myself with a handsome NEW HEARSE, I will attend to Funeral Calls at any hour in town or country.

Danville, Oct 1, '52 G. W. HEWLEY.

Insurance.
Aina Insurance Company,
OF HARTFORD, CONN.,
Unimpaired Capital, $200,000,
(PAID IN.)

THIS Company commands itself to all those who are desirous of effecting safe Insurance on their Dwellings, Stores, and Merchandise in Store, and on Goods shipped in Steamboats on the Western waters. Its capital and assets are more than one million of dollars.

G. A. ARMSTRONG, Ag't.
Danville, Ky.

WILL be taken to learn the Book and Drug business, if suitably one makes immediate application to

WM. M. STOUT.
Oct 1, '52

NEW GOODS!
1852-Fall Importation-1852.

I WOULD respectfully announce to my old customers and friends generally, that I have just returned from the East, where I have purchased a large and desirable stock of

VERY LARGE AND DESIRABLE STOCK OF CLOTHES.

Comprising every variety usually kept in Dry Goods establishments. I would therefore solicit an examination of my stock, as I feel satisfied that my prices will be found as low as any other establishment in the city, especially to punctual paying customers. And there is a good deal said about what can be saved by purchasing for Cash, (the system is a very good one), those desiring to pay that article for Goods, can be accommodated at the very lowest prices.

JOHN H. CALDWELL.
N. B.—All kinds of Barter taken in exchange for Goods.
Sept 24, '52 J. H. C.

TO PURCHASERS
OF
Fall and Winter Dry Goods.

L. DIMMITT
TAKES pleasure in announcing to his customers that he is now receiving his FALL STOCK OF GOODS, embracing in which will be found all the latest and most fashionable styles for Ladies' and Gentlemen's Wear. His stock of

Ladies' Dress Goods,
Bonnets, Ribbons, Laces, Fringes, &c.,
Was purchased with much care, and is very cheap and attractive. Also, every description of STAPLE GOODS.

THE TRIBUNE.

IN UNION THERE IS STRENGTH.

DAVENVILLE, KY.
Friday Morning, Oct. 8, 1852.

Whig Ticket for 1852!

FOR PRESIDENT,
GEN. WINFIELD SCOTT.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
HON. WM. A. GRAHAM,
OF NORTH CAROLINA.

WHIG ELECTORS.
JOSHUA P. BELL, of Boyle.
C. S. MOREHEAD, of Franklin.

DISTRICT ELECTORS.
1st. Lucian Anderson, of Graves.
2d. John S. McFarland, of Davies.
3d. John G. Rogers, of Warren.
4th. Thos. E. Bramlette, of Meigs.
5th. John L. Helm, of Harlan.
6th. Curtis P. Barnum, of Madison.
7th. John Rodman, of Oldham.
8th. Thos. P. Marshall, of Woodford.
9th. Alexander M. Cox, of Lincoln.
10th. Thos. B. Stevenson, of Mason.

REMEMBER.
That the Presidential election is to be held on Tuesday, the second day of November, and continues but a single day. The polls open at six o'clock in the morning and close at seven in the evening.

ADDRESS OF THE WHIG CENTRAL COMMITTEE.—We trust every Whig in the State will read the following address and carry out the suggestions advanced in it: TO THE WHIGS OF KENTUCKY.

You are in the midst of an important and fiercely contested Presidential canvass. The great principles of conservative free government, so dear to every American Whig, are assailed with redoubled energy. In former Presidential contests you have battled zealously for the success of your cherished principles, and victory has uniformly crowned the Whig banner of Kentucky. Now, as heretofore, we have an abiding confidence in the truth of our principles, the justice of our cause, and the superior merits of our chosen leaders, Scott and Graham.

We urge upon our friends in the different counties of the State to give their immediate attention to the all-important duty of organization. Let every Whig regard this appeal as addressed to himself individually. All have a duty to perform in and of this object. Duty to the cause and to our candidate demands that all should co-operate in this work of organization.

The signs of the times are auspicious. Every indication, not only in Kentucky, but throughout the Union, is favorable to the success of our candidates. Never had the Whigs more powerful incentives to united effort than the present time—never a more encouraging prospect of a complete and crowning success. Will you not, one and all, put forth the exertions necessary to secure a glorious result? WORK, WORK! from this time until the election, to bring the issues fairly before the people. Work for the Old Hero who has worked forty years for our country. Repel the slanders upon his fair fame, by spreading abroad the glorious facts of his gallant life. Now is the time for active effort, to arouse our friends, so as to secure a full turn out of the Whig strength at the polls. Let there be a full vote, and Kentucky will go for Scott and Graham by a very large majority. Bring out all the voters. This once accomplished, and the triumph is ours. Fellow Whigs! Look to it!

JAMES HARLAN, A. G. BODGES, THOS. D. TILFORD, W. T. HERNDON, ORLANDO BROWN, JACOB SWIGERT, J. B. TEMPLE, Whig Central Committee, FRANKFORT, Oct. 6, 1852.

THAT APPLE.—Mr. John Caldwell, of this county, presented us a few days since, with one of the finest Apples we have seen this season. We did not weigh it ourselves, but it was said to weigh 1 lb. 3 ounces. Can any of our friends beat it?

The weather has been quite cool and autumn-like during the past few days. There have been several touches of frost.

We have several communications on hand, which we are compelled to defer publishing until next week.

Chessmen have been selling in our city in small quantities for a week or two. They are said to be very abundant this season.

Hon. Jas. C. Sprigg died in Shelby county on the 4th inst. He has several times represented that county in the Legislature, and served one session in Congress.

It is said that three or four Judges are now constantly employed in New York in granting naturalization papers to foreigners desirous of becoming citizens.

CHANGE OF VENUE.—We learn from the last Somerset Gazette, that a change of venue to Laurel county has been granted in the cases of Sarlin and Givens, who stand charged with the murder of Mr. Griffin, of this place.

McMINNIEVILLE RAILROAD.—We learn from a letter received by one of our friends in this place, from an influential citizen of Tennessee, that the McMinnville and Winchester Railroad has been located and put under contract, and the necessary means raised to complete the work. It intersects the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad at Tullahoma, in a direction to connect most advantageously with the Mobile, New Orleans and Memphis Railroads. The letter expresses the most sanguine hopes of making the connection with our road at this place, and concludes by saying: "Come on—we will try and meet you—I purpose striking the first stroke of work at this place with my own hands, with my face towards Danville, and will that no person who may prophesy against our success, ever have my tools. Let them pass into the hands of the energetic, who will keep them ever bright."

We rejoice to see that our neighbors of Tennessee are animated by the right spirit. Let the friends of the Danville and McMinnville enterprise put their shoulders to the wheel, and co-operate harmoniously, with all their zeal, energy and public spirit, and the great work can and will be accomplished.

THE ELECTION.—Two weeks from Tuesday next, is the election, and, with a firm confidence that the Whig party will again be triumphant, we rejoice at the nearness of its approach. The Whigs are gaining strength every day, and by the 21st day of November will be prepared to meet the enemy and that to conquer. We have no doubt of it, whatever. The signs of the times are all in our favor, the skies are bright, and we candidly expect our party to achieve one of the greatest and most glorious political victories of modern times.

The Journal says that from every State where local elections have been held, accounts have been received that may well nerve every Whig soul for the coming contest. The local elections in North Carolina, Maine, Vermont, Delaware, Iowa, and Florida show that we shall carry all those States in the Presidential election, and our belief cannot be shaken that Scott's majority on the 21st of November will not only equal and annihilate the Locofoco party, but surprise and astonish every Whig who has not had a full opportunity of observing the bright and brightening Whig omens that fill the country.

Hon. Wm. T. Ward.—As will be seen by reference to his list of appointments, this gentleman will address his fellow-citizens at this place to-morrow. Mr. Ward is a clear, eloquent, and agreeable speaker, and we trust the people will turn out en masse to hear him.

S. W. RAILROAD.—We publish to day the proceedings of the joint meeting of the friends of the South-western Railroad, from both Tennessee and Kentucky, held at the Tennessee State line. The proceedings will be found very interesting, and of the most cheering character. The friends of the road are at work, and such zeal as they manifest in their labors, is certain to be successful.

THE WHIG MASS MEETING.—The meeting of the Whigs to be held in this county on the 25th, bids fair to be one of the most interesting held in the State. Ex-Gov. Morehead, Hon. R. P. Lecher, Hon. C. S. Morehead, Hon. R. B. Thompson, and Hon. J. F. Bell, will certainly be in attendance, with perhaps other distinguished speakers. Let all who can attend, do so. There will be room for all and plenty of provisions.

FIRST GUN FROM FLORIDA.—WHIG VICTORY!—The Whigs have carried the day in Florida, electing both Congressman and Governor. Florida has always been counted over for the Democrats, and the Whigs, though hoping to carry it by Scott, had but little idea of succeeding in the local elections. "The Whig ball is in motion and gathers as it rolls!"

Ex-Governor Briggs, of Massachusetts, is taking part in the Whig canvass, after a political silence of 12 years.

In several of the States which held their election on Tuesday last, contribution boxes, labelled "One dime to the memory of Washington," were at the voting places. It is proposed that at the Presidential election, this system of collection shall be general all over the Union, that the Washington Monument may be completed without further delay. We hope some patriot will see to it at this place. Who would refuse to give a dime to such an object?

DEMOCRATS RALLYING UNDER A BRITISH FLAG.—The Wilmington (Del.) Journal of Tuesday informs us that at a Democratic "mass meeting" held there on Saturday last, the British national flag floated over the platform on which the speakers stood. And under the flag a Democratic orator is reported to have denounced Gen. Scott as a coward and a thief.

THE LOCOFOCO ORGANS complain of the amount of pay received by Gen. Scott from the Government. Why, during Gen. Jackson's administration, Samuel Swarlow, his New York collector, stole a million and a quarter of dollars, more than four times as much as ever General Scott received for all his forty years' services.

THE BEST RESOLUTION.—The resolution adopted by any meeting, at any place, by any party, since the campaign opened, is to be found among those passed at Williamsburg, Pa. It reads thus: Resolved, THAT WE WILL GO TO WORK, AND CONTINUE UNEASINGLY to strive for the success of Whig men and Whig measures until the last vote is polled.

To work and to work unceasingly! That's the magic power that ensures success in all undertakings; and this resolve universally adopted and acted on by the Whigs, would make our victory as certain as sunrise, and as easy as "rolling off a log."

THE WHIG MASS MEETING AT HARRISBURG, on Monday last, was attended by an immense crowd. Every thing passed off well, and the Whig spirit in old Mercer is fully aroused. The meeting was addressed by Col. John S. Williams, of Clark, who, though he spoke about three hours, was listened to with the greatest attention. His speech was one of the very best we have heard during the canvass, and will tell with powerful effect in the increased Whig voice which Mercer county will give in November next.

THE WHIG MASS MEETING AT HARRISBURG, on Monday last, was attended by an immense crowd. Every thing passed off well, and the Whig spirit in old Mercer is fully aroused. The meeting was addressed by Col. John S. Williams, of Clark, who, though he spoke about three hours, was listened to with the greatest attention. His speech was one of the very best we have heard during the canvass, and will tell with powerful effect in the increased Whig voice which Mercer county will give in November next.

THE SHENLY FREE PRESS was a neutral paper before the meeting of the Whig national Convention—then hoisted the names of Scott and Graham, and hurrah'd for them with a hearty good will—next it comes out for Pierce and King, the paper, editor and all, having been bought by the democrats of Shelby. Wonder how much the editor got for his principles?

WE would inform our neighbor of the Poughboy that we have never said that Gen. Scott failed. We stated that Maj. Christmas, in his speech at this place made such a charge against the old General, and read such an account of the circumstances, that we rejected he had made the charge. No, sir Gen. Scott has no chicken heart, he would not faint if he could, nor could, if he would. He knows no such words as faint or fail either!

A convention was held in Knoxville on the 22d ult., for the purpose of adopting measures to secure the construction of a railroad from Danville, Ky., to Knoxville. Strong resolutions were adopted, and a disposition to commence and carry on the enterprise strongly manifested.

The Governor of South Carolina has convoked the Legislature of that State for the 1st of November to vote for President.

Dead letters.—During the last quarter, the Post-Office Department announce that they have opened one million and a quarter dead letters—from which the Department obtained over eleven thousand dollars.

Isaac Hill, one of the Irish prisoners rescued by the firmness of General Scott from British cruelty in 1812, is now stamping it in Ohio for his friend of forty years ago.

Hon. Robert Lucas, of Ohio, and Hon. James H. Johnson of Georgia both able and influential Democrats, have renounced Pierce, and will support Scott and Graham.

Here they come!—More than thirty members of the Democratic vigilance Committee of Virginia have left the ranks and declared their intention to support Scott and Graham.

CELEB.—The democrats, after having exhausted their vocabulary of epithets, now accuse Gen. Scott with being a demagogue! This is too much for human endurance—and may very properly be classed "the unkindest cut of all."

Hogs.—A few sales for future delivery at Cincinnati at $5.25 net. At St. Louis at $4.50 to $5.00 net, and the Louisville Courier states that $5 net is the highest price paid by packers in that vicinity.

MR. CORWIN VINDICATED.—A despatch from Washington, dated the 6th, says: "The House committee to investigate Mr. Corwin's connection in reference to the Gardner claim, have reported Mr. Corwin blameless."

THE LOUISVILLE JOURNAL says that in the fatal duel between Johnson and White, near Lexington, last week, White was the challenging party. A slight misunderstanding had existed between them since last spring. Johnson had made a remark lately disparaging to White's character. This came to White's knowledge who asked Johnson by letter whether he had made the remark attributed to him. Johnson not only acknowledged it, but added that he believed it. These are substantially the facts.

THE N. Y. EXPRESS says of the rumored new expedition against Cuba, that no good or respectable citizens are engaged in it. A few lazy, loafing, outlawed Creoles, and a few burnt speculators in "Cuban Bonds," are the prime movers in the whole affair.

We notice in many of our exchanges the meaning of the initials F. O. P. We will give our version of the matter.—Montgomery ad. Franklin O. Pierce; Fraud Of Power; Fond Of Provision; Farwell, Oh Presidency; and Fanned Out Politically.

"SERIES BRIGHT"—THE WHIG CAUSE.—A Washington letter in the N. Y. Times says: "I had the privilege a few days since, of perusing the miscellaneous correspondence of the Whig Executive Committee. It embraces every State in the Union, and from each one the tenor of advice is the same, giving promise of a glorious victory for Scott. The signs of awakening are startling. The United Whig party seems to have been aroused from a deep slumber, by the approach of an unexpected danger, and is all the better prepared to repel it by the strength gathered from long rest. In short, there is no longer any reasonable doubt of Gen. Scott's success, and the conviction that it is assured has seized thousands of Democrats, and paralyzed their efforts. This sufficiently appears from the tone of their papers, and the feebleness of the electioneering exertions."

SIGNIFICANT.—At a meeting of the "Free Democracy," held at Fort Montgomery, Orange county, New York, on the 25th ult., the following resolution was adopted: Resolved, That the only hope of the Northern Democracy, is to follow the noble example of Martin Van Buren, John Van Buren, B. F. Butler, H. B. Stanton, Gilbert Deane, and Watson G. Haynes, and thousands of other Free-soilers, and support Franklin Pierce, as the surest means of effecting a repeal of the fugitive slave law, by giving a Northern man the control of all the important offices of the Government."

LETTER FROM MR. FILLMORE.—A letter from Mr. Fillmore has just appeared in the Columbus (Miss.) Argus, which thus nails another Locofoco slander to the counter. By the way, this operation of nailing Locofoco slanders has got to be so common a one—so much a matter of necessary consequence, as to make it scarcely worth while:

WASHINGTON CITY, Aug. 7, 1852. Sir: Your issue of the 25th ult., is received. You say that it has been rumored since the Whig Convention at Baltimore, that I sent a telegraphic despatch to my friends at the Convention "to go for Webster and save the party," and you desire to know whether this is true. In reply to which I now state that it is not; that I made no telegraphic communication during the sitting of the Convention to any member of it, or to any other person for its information.

I am your ob't servant, MILLARD FILLMORE. D. H. LINDSAY, Esq., Houston, Miss.

SPIRIT OF THE CANVASS.—Yesterday, and previously, (says the Memphis Enquirer,) we published long lists of bolters from Pierce and King. Our exchanges teem with accounts of disaffection in the Democratic ranks. A general stampede seems to be going on among the Piercites in many parts of the country. As it was in the last campaign, so it will be in this. The Whigs do a little "bolting" immediately after the nomination; but as soon as they have time to "blow off" their disappointment, they come back. On the other hand the Democrats appear to be almost unanimous at first; but in a little while the "bolting" among them begins, and goes on increasing as the canvass progresses. From now until the day of the election, we predict that the bolting from the Democratic camp, especially in the South, will be unprecedented in the annals of the country. The biggest "bolting" will be on the second day of November, when Winfield Scott will get a larger majority for President than any candidate has obtained since Harrison.

ELECTION RETURNS.—The returns received thus far from the elections held in Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania, are meagre, and though they are favorable to the Whigs, we will not hurrah "till we are out of the woods." We expect though to do some tall crowing next week. The following are all we have received.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 12, P. M. In this city Harrison (whig) is elected to Congress from the 2d District by a large majority, and Disney, (Dem.) from the 1st District by a large reduced majority.

Hockman (whig) is elected to the Legislature. Miller (whig) has a majority in the city for Board of Public Works. The vote for Sheriff is very close, probably Smith (Dem.) is elected. The German wards all gave majorities for the whigs. The votes are not all counted, but the above result is conceded by the Democrats.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 12. Allegheny county—32 districts heard from. McGill, whig, has 30 majority over Kent, Locof. Barker is far behind. Twenty-four districts to hear from. Fayette—Dawson, Democrat, for Congress, 46 majority. In Brownsville borough and district Hoffman 38 maj. Hopkins maj. in Uniontown 5. Woodward 2 maj. Democratic gain of 90.

In West Brownsville district, Hopkins maj. 23. Assemblyman, Democratic majority of 20. Mc Kivly, democrat, majority 6. The democratic sheriff has 13 maj.

DELAWARE.—A telegraphic dispatch from "little Delaware," of the 7th inst., says: "The returns from the State for Inspectors show a Whig majority in the State of 26, making the Whig gain since last year 200 votes."

The section of the new potter's field, near Cincinnati, on Thursday, killed an Irishman who was opening a grave. The man was employed by one of the Medical Colleges.

We copy the following from the Louisville Journal of Monday. Locofoco Nomination for Congress.—Contrary to the advice of the two Democratic papers in this city, the Salons held a district convention at Lagrange on Saturday, and nominated a candidate for Congress. The nominee is Mr. Calvin Sanders. We do not know the gentleman, but understand that he is a respectable citizen of Shelby, and has filled the office of door-keeper in the Kentucky Senate.

A NEW AND VALUABLE WORK.—We take pleasure in re-publishing the following notice from the Louisville Journal, of a new and valuable Theological work from the pen of the Rev. Dr. Bright, of that city. The former publications of Dr. Bright have already given him an eminence as a writer which render it unnecessary to further recommend his new work. Morion & Griswold, publishers, Louisville, Ky.

MESSRS. EDITORS.—A short time since, I saw in your valuable paper a brief notice of Dr. Bright's Essay on God and the Angels, Man, Nature and the Devil. I have read that work with some attention, and am prepared to say it is worth a careful perusal. The Doctor has entered fully and fairly into the whys and wherefores of the subjects upon which he has treated. He has certainly more clearly defined the Philosophy of Theology and Psychology than any author I have hitherto read. His proofs are clear and conclusive. He has taken high, and to a considerable extent, new grounds, disregarding the old track of the schoolmen; yet with all his independence, we think he has well sustained himself. On nature and her laws, he is clear and satisfactory. His views both of the general and moral government of God are well sustained. The duty of man to man cannot but be read with much interest. His thoughts on Jurisprudence are decidedly valuable to the legal profession. His chapter on the Angels is new and interesting, as is, also, that on the Devil.—The author has certainly given us an original chain of connection from the principle of God to the atom he has created. The work cannot fail to be read with interest by all lovers of science.—The Doctor has proved himself a philosopher, and Louisville may well be proud of him as one of her citizens.

A FRIEND TO SCIENCE. CHANGE OF BUSINESS.—D. A. RUSSEL, as will be seen by his advertisement, is entering largely into the business of selling Hardware, Groceries, Paints, Oils, Shoes and Boots, &c.

Day Goods.—See the advertisement of Messrs. Cochran & Co., of Lexington. FINE SILKS AT COST.—See the advertisement of Mr. L. Dimmitt.

For Librarian. The emigrants going from Kentucky, (unless otherwise specially directed,) will meet in Louisville, on Monday, the 13th day of December, 1852, to embark for New Orleans, whence the vessel will sail on the 20th of December, for Liberia. Emigrants will inquire for Rev. A. M. COWAN, Agent of Kentucky Colonization Society, at Cassidy & Hopkins, Main street Louisville.

MARRIED.—On Tuesday morning last, the 1st inst., by Rev. Mr. Taylor, Mr. PART J. DOWNEY to Mrs. Mary E. MARTIN, daughter of Mr. JAMES MARSHALL of this place.

IF we take a sincere pleasure in tendering the above couple our cordial wishes that their wedded life may be a long, happy and prosperous one, and that no incident may ever occur to mar their conjugal joy.

When you thought your fond hearts should divide; And, living thus, you'd never regret the day, When pledged, ye stood, the groom and bride.

FASHIONABLE DRESS MAKING. Miss Margaret E. Hughes & Mrs. Mary E. Lankford. RESPECTFULLY inform the Ladies of Danville and vicinity, that they have taken a room in the upstairs over the Millinery of Miss Finnell and Mrs. Shindler, opposite the Bank, where they are prepared to cut and make Ladies' Dresses in the most fashionable style. They solicit a share of patronage, and promise that their work shall be well done, their charges reasonable, and satisfaction warranted in all cases.

Valuable Town Lots for Sale! WILL sell on reasonable terms, 12 Acres of Ground, in the Town of Danville, lying in the junction of the Lexington Turnpike and the old Dix River road. I will sell the whole quantity, or lots to suit purchasers.

Silk Dress Goods At Prime Cost for Cash! THE subscriber is selling his stock of figured Fanny and Changeable, and Black figured SILKS, AT COST, WITHOUT CHARGE OR PER CENT.—For Cash Exclusively! Call and see.

Change of Business! NOTWITHSTANDING the fact that the subscriber is selling his Dry Goods at Cost, he is now receiving and intends to keep constantly on hand, a large and complete stock of the following articles: Hardware—general assortment; Boots and Shoes; Hats and Caps; Paints, Oils and Varnishes; Groceries; Window Glass—all sizes; Lamps and Burning Fluid; Together with other articles too numerous to mention, all of which will be sold on reasonable terms.

Ladies Look at This! LADIES' India-Rubber House and Garden Gloves. They preserve the hands soft and white, in all kinds of rough and dirty work, and are an infallible and speedy cure for chapped hands. Only a few pairs for sale by WM. M. STOUT.

Land Warrants Wanted. EIGHTY ten Acres, One Hundred and Fifty Eight Acres, and Two Hundred and Forty Acres Land Warrants wanted, for which the highest prices in cash will be given.

LIST OF LETTERS remaining in the Post Office at Danville, Ky., September 30, 1852: Richard Atkinson or W. H. Pope, E. H. Armstrong, Wm. Alder. John Burns, Rhodman Ball, Benj. T. Baker, Robert S. McMartin, John C. Baker, J. H. Corliss, Rosa Cowan, Wm. Cornelius, Jas. Curtis, Anderson Carpenter. B. E. Davis, Jas. M. Doss, Josephus Donohoe, Mrs. Alfred Deer, James D. Dean. Philip Ezzer. Mrs. Jane H. Forbes, J. L. Ford, Sam. Farmon. A. J. Green, Mr. Gibney, Mrs. Sally Gibson. Miss Nancy Harlow, Mrs. Ann Hamilton. Robt. Kennedy, Marks Kinsely, Thophaus Kender. George W. Lewis. B. A. McKenzie, Mrs. Wm. Mitchell, Wm. Murry, Master E. B. Mean, Richard or Jessy Merrill. Arthur Northing, Dr. S. T. Newman. J. B. Parker, M. D. E. W. Parker. Geo. Reaher, J. M. Robb, Mrs. Margaret E. Rhodon, Mrs. Eliza Roberts. Wm. Sanley, Rev. Fred Stanley, Miss Dolly Sherrow. John Walker, Mrs. Sally Williams, J. White or Mr. Hancock, Danl. Whitsett. (51) W. R. OREAR, P. M. Oct. 8, '52 11

Another Butcher! Beef, Mutton, Sausage, Pork, &c. THE subscriber respectfully informs the citizens of Danville, and the surrounding country, that he has commenced BUTCHERING in this place, and will regularly have in market every Wednesday and Saturday Mornings, Beef, Mutton, Pork, Sausage, Liverwurst, Lard, &c. All of the best, and will sell as cheap as it can possibly be afforded. He pledges himself to use the best efforts to please all who may patronize him. All he asks is a fair share of the patronage of this community.

Second Importation For Fall and Winter Sales! FANCY DRESS FOODS, CLOAKS, MANTLES, &c. J. W. COCHRAN & CO., LEXINGTON, KY. ARE NOW RECEIVING their Second Supply of English, French and American DRY GOODS, COMPRISING many new and desirable styles not before offered in this market. It is which we will be pleased to exhibit to our customers and other persons, with a view to secure that they will be sold as low as similar Goods are sold in any market.

J. W. COCHRAN & CO. Lexington, Oct. 15, '52 11

TO THE LADIES! NEW MILLINERY. MISS MARY E. FINNELL & MRS. M. A. SHINDLER, respectfully announce to the Ladies of Danville and the surrounding country, that they have just opened, in the room two doors below the store of Mr. W. M. Fields and nearly opposite the Bank, a beautiful and fashionable stock of Bonnets, Caps, Children's Hats, Ribbons, Feather, Flowers, and Milliner's Goods of every description. Which they will sell on very favorable terms. Being in receipt of the latest Fashions, and both having much experience in the business, they will make, trim, or alter: Bonnets, Caps, &c., in the latest style, or to suit the wishes of the customer. Charges moderate, and satisfaction warranted in all cases. Call and examine their goods and work.

Boot and Shoe Manufactory! J. P. THOREL. HAVING concluded to remain in Danville, begs leave to announce to his friends and the public that he has taken the shop formerly occupied by Jas. Bentley, 160 doors above Caldwell's corner, where he will be always found ready and willing to make to order, Boots and Shoes in the most Fashionable Style. Or in any other style to suit the wishes of those who patronize him. He has now on hand a good stock of FASHIONABLE BOOTS of his own manufacture, which he will sell on favorable terms. Being himself an experienced workman, he is determined by employing none but the best hands and using only the best materials, to merit a share of patronage, and give satisfaction to all his customers.

Fresh from the East! W. L. MOORE'S MERCHANT TAILOR, Danville, Ky. I HAVE just received my FALL AND WINTER STOCK, consisting of Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings. Of every variety, style and price. Also, a good supply of Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods, Shirts, Drawers, Cravats, Collars, and every article necessary to complete a Gentleman's Wardrobe—all of which I offer to sell on as fair terms as any honest man ought to ask.

Remington's Patent Condensing and Digesting COFFEE POT! WILL save at least one-fourth if not one third of the coffee ordinarily used. 2d. Produces a beverage of superior flavor. 3d. Settles the coffee entirely by its own action. 4th. Never boils over. 5th. Costs but little more than the ordinary pot. 6th. Will soon save its cost in the amount of coffee saved. 7th. Will last as long as any ordinary coffee pot. Manufactured and sold by D. GRIFFITH, For the counties of Boyle, Lincoln and Casey. Oct. 8, '52 11

Land Warrants Wanted. EIGHTY ten Acres, One Hundred and Fifty Eight Acres, and Two Hundred and Forty Acres Land Warrants wanted, for which the highest prices in cash will be given.

THE subscriber, desirous to square up accounts with everybody, will offer for sale THE TAVERN STAND, in the town of Danville, Boyle county, Ky., at present occupied by himself, together with all the Furniture. Belonging to the same, the most of which is new and good. Any person desiring of engaging in the business, would do well to take hold of this establishment, as a location possessing the same advantages is hard to find anywhere. The House is situated in the business part of the town, and is entirely detached from any other buildings, and is within 300 yards of the terminus depot of the Lexington and Danville Railroad. There is on the lot

A Good New Stable, And all necessary Out-buildings; 3 good Cattle, which always keep dry. A location could not be selected offering greater inducements to any one wishing to engage in the business of keeping a Public House—situated in one of the richest and healthiest portions of the State, a good run of custom established, together with many other advantages which can be seen by those wishing to purchase. I deem it needless to say more, but invite those who wish to obtain a good situation to make money to call and examine for themselves. A good bargain can be had Privately in the above property, either with or without the Furniture, will

Monday, October 18, 1852. And if not sold before that day, will, on that day, be sold at Public Sale, to the highest bidder. The Terms will be liberal, and made known on the day of sale, or to those wishing to purchase privately, and wish that the purchaser can make most of the purchase money with the property, before he has to pay it.

A Nimble Sixpence is better than a slow Shilling! WE have just received a splendid stock of Groceries, in part as follows: 4,000 lbs. Atlantic Sugar, 12 lbs for $1; 1,000 " Crushed " 8 " " $1; 400 " Lard " " " " 400 " Mountain Rio Coffee, 8 lbs for $1; Together with a general assortment of other Groceries, Cheap for Cash, at W. B. MORROW & CO'S. Mammoth Grocery. Oct. 8

CHEAPEST GOODS IN DANVILLE. LATEST ARRIVAL OF Rich New Style DRY GOODS! G. A. ARMSTRONG has just received a large and complete stock of FALL and WINTER GOODS, consisting in part of the following articles: Ladies Dress Goods—all descriptions; Ribbons, Laces, &c.; Fancy Goods of all kinds; A large stock of Sewing Machine Cloth, Cassimeres and Vestings; Hats, Caps, Boots and Shoes; Hardware, Cutlery, Glass and Queensware, together with every other article usually found in such establishments. These Goods are selected with great care, and will be sold VERY CHEAP for Cash, or to prompt paying customers on credit till the 1st of January, 1853. Call and see.

CHESAPEE STILL! 20 CASH AND ARMY! At the Lone Star Cash Dry Goods Store. WE have just received, in addition to our large stock of Fall and Winter Dry Goods, the following articles: Sup. blk Italian Silks; Fash. Silk Hats; " French Merinos; Mole skin; " Cambrics; Black Buckram; " Belton's; Curbrim Kossuth caps; " Plain; Irving Plush Caps; Trimmings; Military; Trimming Silks; Boys' gimp trim'd do; Braces; " bk Kossuth hats; Silk Lace Veils; " Wool do; Superior Irish Linen and Bleached Cottons; Eastern and Country Jeans and Linsey; Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings; Also, a tremendous stock of Boots and Shoes. IF the above stock was received by Express, and we can and will sell Goods cheaper than any house in the city, and at saving terms. We shall continue to receive New Goods every two weeks during the season! W. B. MORROW & CO. Oct. 8, '52

GREAT ATTRACTION! NEW CASH STORE! CHEAP GOODS! THE undersigned are now receiving and opening in the store-room one door below Mr. A. S. McGroarty's Drug Store, a very large stock of

THE TAVERN STAND, in the town of Danville, Boyle county, Ky., at present occupied by himself, together with all the Furniture. Belonging to the same, the most of which is new and good. Any person desiring of engaging in the business, would do well to take hold of this establishment, as a location possessing the same advantages is hard to find anywhere. The House is situated in the business part of the town, and is entirely detached from any other buildings, and is within 300 yards of the terminus depot of the Lexington and Danville Railroad. There is on the lot

A Good New Stable, And all necessary Out-buildings; 3 good Cattle, which always keep dry. A location could not be selected offering greater inducements to any one wishing to engage in the business of keeping a Public House—situated in one of the richest and healthiest portions of the State, a good run of custom established, together with many other advantages which can be seen by those wishing to purchase. I deem it needless to say more, but invite those who wish to obtain a good situation to make money to call and examine for themselves. A good bargain can be had Privately in the above property, either with or without the Furniture, will

Monday, October 18, 1852. And if not sold before that day, will, on that day, be sold at Public Sale, to the highest bidder. The Terms will be liberal, and made known on the day of sale, or to those wishing to purchase privately, and wish that the purchaser can make most of the purchase money with the property, before he has to pay it.

A Nimble Sixpence is better than a slow Shilling! WE have just received a splendid stock of Groceries, in part as follows: 4,000 lbs. Atlantic Sugar, 12 lbs for $1; 1,000 " Crushed " 8 " " $1; 400 " Lard " " " " 400 " Mountain Rio Coffee, 8 lbs for $1; Together with a general assortment of other Groceries, Cheap for Cash, at W. B. MORROW & CO'S. Mammoth Grocery. Oct. 8

CHEAPEST GOODS IN DANVILLE. LATEST ARRIVAL OF Rich New Style DRY GOODS! G. A. ARMSTRONG has just received a large and complete stock of FALL and WINTER GOODS, consisting in part of the following articles: Ladies Dress Goods—all descriptions; Ribbons, Laces, &c.; Fancy Goods of all kinds; A large stock of Sewing Machine Cloth, Cassimeres and Vestings; Hats, Caps, Boots and Shoes; Hardware, Cutlery, Glass and Queensware, together with every other article usually found in such establishments. These Goods are selected with great care, and will be sold VERY CHEAP for Cash, or to prompt paying customers on credit till the 1st of January, 1853. Call and see.

CHESAPEE STILL! 20 CASH AND ARMY! At the Lone Star Cash Dry Goods Store. WE have just received, in addition to our large stock of Fall and Winter Dry Goods, the following articles: Sup. blk Italian Silks; Fash. Silk Hats; " French Merinos; Mole skin; " Cambrics; Black Buckram; " Belton's; Curbrim Kossuth caps; " Plain; Irving Plush Caps; Trimmings; Military; Trimming Silks; Boys' gimp trim'd do; Braces; " bk Kossuth hats; Silk Lace Veils; " Wool do; Superior Irish Linen and Bleached Cottons; Eastern and Country Jeans and Linsey; Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings; Also, a tremendous stock of Boots and Shoes. IF the above stock was received by Express, and we can and will sell Goods cheaper than any house in the city, and at saving terms. We shall continue to receive New Goods every two weeks during the season! W. B. MORROW & CO. Oct. 8, '52

GREAT ATTRACTION! NEW CASH STORE! CHEAP GOODS! THE undersigned are now receiving and opening in the store-room one door below Mr. A. S. McGroarty's Drug Store, a very large stock of

THE TAVERN STAND, in the town of Danville, Boyle county, Ky., at present occupied by himself, together with all the Furniture. Belonging to the same, the most of which is new and good. Any person desiring of engaging in the business, would do well to take hold of this establishment, as a location possessing the same advantages is hard to find anywhere. The House is situated in the business part of the town, and is entirely detached from any other buildings, and is within 300 yards of the terminus depot of the Lexington and Danville Railroad. There is on the lot

A Good New Stable, And all necessary Out-buildings; 3 good Cattle, which always keep dry. A location could not be selected offering greater inducements to any one wishing to engage in the business of keeping a Public House—situated in one of the richest and healthiest portions of the State, a good run of custom established, together with many other advantages which can be seen by those wishing to purchase. I deem it needless to say more, but invite those who wish to

